Executive summary: -

Fylde Anaesthetists, as custodian of personal information relating to your medical treatment, must only use that information in accordance with all applicable law and guidance. This Privacy Notice provides you with a detailed overview of how we will manage your data from the point at which it is gathered and onwards, and how that complies with the law. We will use your personal information for a variety of purposes including, but not limited to, providing you with care and treatment, sharing it with other medical professionals and research/clinical audit programmes.

In addition, you have a number of rights as a data subject. You can, for instance, seek access to your medical information, object to us using your information in particular ways, request rectification of any information which is inaccurate or deletion of information which is no longer required (subject to certain exceptions). This Privacy Notice also sets out your rights in respect of your personal information, and how to exercise them.

For ease of reference, this Notice is broken into separate sections below with headings which will help you to navigate through the document.

Introduction: -

This Privacy Notice sets out details of the information that we, Fylde Anaesthetists (comprising of Consultant Anaesthetists responsible for your treatment and our Business Manager), may collect from you and how that information may be used. Please take your time to read this Privacy Notice carefully.

If you have any queries, comments or concerns in respect of the way Fylde Anaesthetists have used, or potentially will use, your personal information then you should contact our Business Manager directly and we would be happy to discuss further, contact details as above.

Your personal data: -

The Fylde Anaesthetists Business Manager is Data Controller in respect of the personal information that the Fylde Anaesthetist group hold about you. This will mainly relate to your medical treatment but will be likely to also include other information such as financial data in relation to billing. Fylde Anaesthetists must comply with the data protection legislation and relevant guidance when handling your personal information. Your personal data may include any images taken in relation to your treatment which must not only be managed in accordance with the law and this Privacy Notice, but also all applicable professional standards including guidance from the General Medical Council and British Medical Association.

We will provide your treatment in collaboration with a healthcare institution (such as an independent or public hospital) and, in due course, it may be necessary for this institution to also process your personal data. Fylde Anaesthetists will support this in accordance with the law, the principles of this Privacy Notice and to the extent that it is necessary to do so. This could be where the healthcare institution needs to arrange other healthcare services as part of your treatment, such as nursing or dietician advice, or support other aspects of the treatment which I provide to you. In that case, the healthcare institution will become a joint Data Controller in respect of your personal information and you will be able to obtain a copy of their Privacy Notice which sets out how they will manage that information.

Your personal information will be handled in accordance with the principles set out within this Privacy Notice. This means that whenever Fylde Anaesthetists use your personal data, they will only do so as set out in this Privacy Notice.

What personal information do I collect and use from patients?

We will use "special categories of personal information" (previously known as "sensitive personal data") about you, such as information relating to your health.

If you provide personal information to us about other individuals (including medical or financial information) you should inform the individual about the contents of this Privacy Notice. We will also process such information in accordance with this Privacy Notice.

In addition, you should note that in the event you amend data which we already hold about you (for instance by amending a pre-populated form) then we will update our systems to reflect the amendments. We will continue to store historical data.

Personal information: -

As one of our patients, the personal information we hold about you may include the following: -

- Name

- Contact details, such as postal address, email address and telephone number (including mobile number)
- Financial information, such as payment details and insurance policy details
- Occupation
- Emergency contact details, including next of kin
- Background referral details

Special Categories Personal Information: -

As one of Fylde Anaesthetists patients, we will hold information relating to your medical treatment which is known as a special category of personal data under the law, meaning that it must be handled even more sensitively. This may include the following:

- Details of your current or former physical or mental health, including information about any healthcare you have received from other healthcare providers such as GPs, dentists or hospitals (private and/or NHS), which may include details of clinic and hospital visits, as well as medicines administered. We will provide further details below on the way we handle such information.
- Details of services you have received from us
- Details of your nationality, race and/or ethnicity
- Details of your religion
- Details of any genetic data or biometric data relating to you
- Data concerning your sex life and/or sexual orientation
- The confidentiality of your medical information is important to Fylde Anaesthetists, and we make every effort to prevent unauthorised access to and use of information relating to your current or former physical and mental health (or indeed any of your personal information more generally). In doing so, we will comply with UK data protection law, including the Data Protection Act 2018 and all applicable medical confidentiality guidelines issued by professional bodies including, but not limited to, the General Medical Council
- From 25 May 2018, the current Data Protection Act will be replaced by the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and a new Data Protection Act. All uses of your information will comply with the GDPR and the new Data Protection Act from that date onwards

How do we collect your information?

We may collect personal information from a number of different sources including, but not limited to:

- GPs
- Dentists
- Other hospitals, both NHS and private

- Mental health providers
- Commissioners of healthcare services
- Other clinicians (including their medical secretaries)

Directly from you: -

Information may be collected directly from you when:

- You enter into a contract with Fylde Anaesthetists for the provision of healthcare services
- You use those services
- You submit a query to us including by email or by social media
- You correspond with us by letter, email, telephone or social media.

From other healthcare organisations: -

Our patients will usually receive healthcare from other organisations, and so in order to provide you with the best treatment possible we may have to collect personal information about you from them.

These may include:

- Medical records from your GP
- Medical records from other clinicians (including their medical secretaries)
- Medical records from your dentist
- Medical records from the NHS or any private healthcare organisation

Medical records include information about your diagnosis, clinic and hospital visits and medicines administered.

From third parties: -

As detailed in the previous section, it is often necessary to seek information from other healthcare organisations. Fylde Anaesthetists may also collect information about you from third parties when:

- You are referred to us for the provision of services including healthcare services
- We liaise with your current or former health professional or other treatment or provider
- We liaise with your family
- We liaise with your insurance policy provider
- We deal with experts (including medical experts) and other service providers about services you have received or are receiving from us
- We deal with NHS health service bodies about services you have received or are receiving from us
- We liaise with debt collection agencies

How will we communicate with you?

Fylde Anaesthetists may communicate with you in a range of ways, including by telephone, SMS, email, and / or post. If Fylde Anaesthetists contact you using the telephone number(s) which you have provided (landline and/or mobile), and you are not available which results in the call being directed to a voicemail and/or answering service, we may leave a voice message on your voicemail and/or answering service as appropriate, and including only sufficient basic details to enable you to identify who the call is from, very limited detail as to the reason for the call and how to call us back.

Please note that although providing your mobile number and email address and stating a preference to be communicated by a method will be taken as an affirmative confirmation that you are happy for us to contact you in that manner, Fylde Anaesthetists are not relying on your consent to process your personal data to correspond with you about your treatment. As set out further below, processing your personal data for those purposes is justified on the basis that it is necessary to provide you with healthcare service.

What are the purposes for which your information is used?

Fylde Anaesthetists may 'process' your information for several different purposes, which is essentially the language used by the law to mean using your data. Each time Fylde Anaesthetists use your data we must have a legal justification to do so. The justification will depend on the purpose of the proposed use of your data. When the information that we process is classed as a "special category of personal information", we must have a specific additional legal justification to use it as proposed.

Generally, Fylde Anaesthetists will rely on the following legal justifications, or 'grounds':

- Taking steps at your request so that you can enter into a contract with us to receive healthcare services from us.
- For the purposes of providing you with healthcare pursuant to a contract between you and Fylde Anaesthetists. we will rely on this for activities such as supporting your medical treatment or care and other benefits, supporting your nurse, carer or other healthcare professional and providing other services to you.
- Fylde Anaesthetists have an appropriate business need to process your personal information and such business need does not cause harm to you. We will rely on this for activities such as quality assurance, maintaining our business records, monitoring outcomes and responding to any complaints.
- we have a legal or regulatory obligation to use such personal information.
- We need to use such personal information to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights.
- You have provided your consent to our use of your personal information.

Note that failure to provide your information further to a contractual requirement with Fylde Anaesthetists may mean that we are unable to set you up as a patient or facilitate the provision of your healthcare.

Fylde Anaesthetists provide further detail on these grounds in the sections below.

Appropriate business needs: -

One legal ground for processing personal data is where we do so in pursuit of legitimate interests and those interests are not overridden by your privacy rights. Where Fylde Anaesthetists refer to use for our appropriate business needs, we are relying on this legal ground.

Fylde Anaesthetists may 'process' your information for a number of different purposes, which is essentially the language used by the law to mean using your data. Each time Fylde Anaesthetists use your data we must have a legal justification to do so. The justification will depend on the purpose of the proposed use of your data. When the information that we process is classed as a "special category of personal information", we must have a specific additional legal justification to use it as proposed.

You have a range of rights in respect of your personal data. This includes the right to object to Fylde Anaesthetists using your personal information in a way, (such as sharing that information with third parties), and we must stop using it in that way unless specific exceptions apply. This includes for example, if it is necessary to defend a legal claim brought against us, or it is otherwise necessary for the purposes of your ongoing treatment.

The right to object to other uses of your personal data: -

You will find details of Fylde Anaesthetists legal grounds for each of our processing purposes below. We have set out individually those purposes for which we will use your personal information, and under each one we set out the legal justifications, or grounds, which allow Fylde Anaesthetists to do so. You will note that Fylde Anaesthetists have set out a legal ground, as well as an 'additional' legal ground for special categories of personal information. This is because Fylde Anaesthetists must demonstrate additional legal grounds where using information which relates to a person's healthcare, as Fylde Anaesthetists will be the majority of the times we use your personal information.

Purpose 1: To set you up as our patient, including carrying out fraud, credit, anti-money laundering and other regulatory checks

We may have to carry out checks for you to become a patient. These may include standard background checks, which we cannot perform without using your personal information.

Legal ground: -

- Taking the necessary steps so that you can enter into a contract with us for the delivery of healthcare.

Additional legal ground for special categories of personal information: -

- The use is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, and it is also in my legitimate interests to do so.

Purpose 2: To provide you with healthcare and related services

Clearly, the reason you come to Fylde Anaesthetists is to provide you with healthcare, and so we must use your personal information for that purpose.

Legal grounds: -

- Providing you with healthcare and related services
- Fulfilling my contract with you for the delivery of healthcare

Purpose 3: For account settlement purposes

Fylde Anaesthetists will use your personal information to ensure that your account and billing is fully accurate and up-to-date

Legal grounds:

- Us providing you with healthcare and other related services
- Fulfilling our contract with you for the delivery of healthcare
- You having an appropriate business need to use your information which does not overly prejudice you
- Your consent

Additional legal grounds for special categories of personal information: -

- We need to use the data to provide healthcare services to you
- The use is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights
- Your consent

Purpose 4: For medical audit/research purposes

Clinical audit: -

We may process your personal data for the purposes of local clinical audit – i.e. an audit carried out by ourselves or our direct team for the purposes of assessing outcomes for patients and identifying improvements which could be made for the future. We can do so based on our legitimate interest and the public interest in statistical and scientific research, and with appropriate safeguards in place. You are, however, entitled to object to us using your personal data for this purpose, and as a result of which we would need to stop doing so. If you would like to raise such an objection, then please contact us using the details provided in paragraph 3 above.

We may also be asked to share information with U.K. registries for which ethical approval is not necessarily required but which form part of the National Clinical Audit programme, hosted by NHS England and who provide a list of National Clinical Audit and Clinical Outcome Review programmes and other quality improvement programmes which we should prioritise for participation. We may do so without your consent provided that the audit registry has received statutory approval, or where the information will be provided in a purely anonymous form, otherwise your consent will be needed and either we will seek this from you or the registry themselves will do so.

Medical research

- We may also be asked to participate in medical research and share data with ethically approved third party research organisations.
- We will share your personal data only to the extent that it is necessary to do so in assisting research and as permitted by law. Some research projects will have received statutory approval such that consent may not be required to use your personal data. In those circumstances, your personal will be shared on the basis that:

Legal grounds: -

- We have a legitimate interest in helping with medical research and have put appropriate safeguards in place to protect your privacy

Additional legal grounds for special categories of personal information: -

- The processing is necessary in the public interest for statistical and scientific research purposes

If consent is required then either we will seek this from you, or the research agency will do so.

Purpose 5: Communicating with you and resolving any queries or complaints that you might have.

From time to time, patients may raise queries, or even complaints, and we take those communications very seriously. It is important that we can resolve such matters fully and properly and so Fylde Anaesthetists will need to use your personal information to do so.

Legal grounds: -

- Providing you with healthcare and other related services
- Having an appropriate business need to use your information which does not overly prejudice you

Additional legal grounds for special categories of personal information: -

- The use is necessary for the provision of healthcare or treatment pursuant to a contract with a health professional
- The use is necessary for me to establish, exercise or defend my legal rights

Purpose 6: Communicating with any other individual that you ask us to update about your care and updating other healthcare professionals about your care.

In addition, other healthcare professionals or organisations may need to know about your treatment for them to provide you with safe and effective care, and so we may need to share your personal information with them.

Legal grounds: -

- Providing you with healthcare and other related services
- We have a legitimate interest in ensuring that other healthcare professionals who are routinely involved in your care have a full picture of your treatment

Additional legal ground for special categories of personal information: -

- We need to use the data to provide healthcare services to you
- The use is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest under UK law

- The use is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights

We may be required by law or by regulators to provide personal information, and in which case we will have a legal responsibility to do so. From time to time, clinicians are unfortunately also the subject of legal actions or complaints. To fully investigate and respond to those actions, it is necessary to access your personal information (although only to the extent that it is necessary and relevant to the subject-matter).

Legal grounds: -

- The use is necessary for Fylde Anaesthetists to comply with our legal obligations

Additional legal ground for special categories of personal information: -

- We need to use the data for others to provide informed healthcare services to you
- The use is necessary for reasons of the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems
- The use is necessary for establishing, exercising or defending legal claims

We are also required by law to assist with audits of health records, including medical information, for quality assurance purposes. Your personal and medical information will be treated in accordance with guidance issued by the Care Quality Commission (England), Health Inspectorate Wales and Healthcare Improvement Scotland.

Purpose 8: Managing our business operations such as maintaining accounting records, analysis of financial results, internal audit requirements, receiving professional advice (e.g. tax or legal advice)

To do this, Fylde Anaesthetists will not need to use your special categories of personal information and so we have not identified the additional ground to use your information for this purpose.

Legal grounds: -

- Us having an appropriate business need to use your information which does not overly prejudice you

Disclosures to third parties: -

Fylde Anaesthetists may disclose your information to the third parties listed below for the purposes described in this Privacy Notice. This might include: -

- A doctor, nurse, carer or any other healthcare professional involved in your treatment
- Other members of support staff involved in the delivery of your care, like receptionists and porters
- Anyone that you ask me to communicate with or provide as an emergency contact, for example your next of kin or carer
- NHS organisations, including NHS Resolution, NHS England, Department of Health
- Other private sector healthcare providers
- Your GP
- Your dentist
- Other clinicians (including their medical secretaries)
- Third parties who assist in the administration of your healthcare, such as insurance companies
- Private Healthcare Information Network
- National and other professional research/audit programmes and registries, as detailed under purpose 4 above
- Government bodies, including the Ministry of Defence, the Home Office and HMRC
- Our regulators, like the Care Quality Commission, Health Inspectorate Wales and Healthcare Improvement Scotland
- The police and other third parties where reasonably necessary for the prevention or detection of crime
- Our insurers
- Debt collection agencies
- Third party services providers such as IT suppliers, actuaries, auditors, document management providers and tax advisers
- Selected third parties in connection with any sale, transfer or disposal of our business

We may communicate with these third parties in a variety of ways including, but not limited to, email, post, fax and telephone.

How long do we keep personal information for?

Fylde Anaesthetists will only keep your personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the relevant purposes set out in this privacy notice and to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

If you would like further information regarding the periods for which your personal information will be stored, please contact Fylde Anaesthetists using the details at the head of this privacy notice.

International data transfers: -

We (or third parties acting on our behalf), may store or process information that we collect about you in countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA). Where we make a transfer of your personal information outside of the EEA we will take the required steps to ensure that your personal information is protected.

We will only do so to the extent that it is relevant and necessary. Under certain circumstances we may request your consent for such a transfer.

If you would like further information regarding the steps we take to safeguard your personal information, please contact us using the details provided above.

Your rights: -

Under data protection law you have certain rights in relation to the personal information that Fylde Anaesthetists hold about you. These include rights to know what information Fylde Anaesthetists hold about you and how it is used. You may exercise these rights at any time by contacting Fylde Anaesthetists using the details provided above.

- There will not usually be a charge for handling a request to exercise your rights.
- If Fylde Anaesthetists cannot comply with your request to exercise your rights, we will usually tell you why.

There are some special rules about how these rights apply to health information as set out in legislation including the Data Protection Act (current and future), the General Data Protection Regulation as well as any secondary legislation which regulates the use of personal information.

If you make many requests or it is clear that it is not reasonable for Fylde Anaesthetists to comply with a request, then we do not have to respond. Alternatively, Fylde Anaesthetists can charge for responding.

Your rights include: -

The right to access your personal information: -

- You are usually entitled to a copy of the personal information we hold about you and details about how we use it.
- Your information will usually be provided to you in writing, unless otherwise requested. If you have made the request electronically (e.g. by email) the information will be provided to you by electronic means where possible.
- Please note that in some cases Fylde Anaesthetists may not be able to fully comply with your request, for example if your request involves the personal data of another person and it would not be fair to that person to provide it to you.

You are entitled to the following under data protection law: -

Under Article 15 (1) of the GDPR we must usually confirm whether we have personal information about you. If we do hold personal information about you, we usually need to explain to you: -

- The purposes for which we use your personal information
- The types of personal information we hold about you
- Who your personal information has been or will be shared with, including organisations based outside the EEA.
- If your personal information leaves the EU, how we will make sure that it is protected
- Where possible, the length of time we expect to hold your personal information. If that is not possible, the criteria we use to determine how long we hold your information for
- If the personal data we hold about you was not provided by you, details of the source of the information
- Whether we make any decisions about you solely by computer and if so details of how those decision are made and the impact they may have on you
- Your right to ask us to amend or delete your personal information
- Your right to ask us to restrict how your personal information is used or to object to our use of your personal information
- Your right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office

1. We also need to provide you with a copy of your personal data, provided specific exceptions and exemptions do not apply.

The right to rectification: -

We take reasonable steps to ensure that the information we hold about you is accurate and complete. However, if you do not believe this is the case, you can ask us to update or amend it.

The right to erasure (also known as the right to be forgotten)

Fylde Anaesthetists may update this Privacy Notice from time to time to ensure that it remains accurate, and the most up-to-date version can always be found at www.fyldeanaesthetists.com. If there are any material changes to the way your personal information is to be used, then Fylde Anaesthetists will provide you with an updated copy of this Privacy Notice.

In some circumstances, you have the right to request that Fylde Anaesthetists delete the personal information they hold about you. However, there are exceptions to this right and in certain circumstances we can refuse to delete the information in question. For example, we do not have to comply with your request if it is necessary to keep your information to perform tasks which are in the public interest, including public health, or for the purposes of establishing, exercising or defending legal claims.

The right to restriction of processing: -

In some circumstances, Fylde Anaesthetists must "pause" our use of your personal data if you ask them to do so, although we do not have to comply with all requests to restrict our use of your personal information. For example, we do not have to comply with your request if it is necessary to keep your information to perform tasks which are in the public interest, including public health, or for the purposes of establishing, exercise or defending legal claims.

The right to withdraw consent: -

In some cases, Anaesthetists may need your consent for their use of your personal information to comply with data protection legislation. Where we do this, you have the right to withdraw your consent to further use of your personal information. You can do this by contacting me using the details provided at section 3 above.

The right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office: -

You can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office if you are unhappy with the way that Fylde Anaesthetists have dealt with a request from you to exercise any of these rights, or if you think we have not complied with our legal obligations.

More information can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office website: <https://ico.org.uk/>

Making a complaint will not affect any other legal rights or remedies that you have.

National Data Opt-Out Programme: -

NHS Digital is currently developing a national programme which will go live on 25 May 2018, pursuant to which all patients will be able to log their preferences as to sharing of their personal information. All health and care organisations will be required to uphold patient choices, but only from March 2020. In the meantime, you should make me aware directly of any uses of your data to which you object.

Updates to this Privacy Notice: -

Fylde Anaesthetists may update this Privacy Notice from time to time to ensure that it remains accurate. If these changes result in any material difference to the way we process your personal data, then we will provide you with an updated copy of the Policy.
